A remarkable case of literary thatt came before his Worship Huang and Mr. Giles at the Mixed Court on the 22nd. October. It seems that Chinaman living in Wei-chow was recently possession of a very valuable and rare book comprising upwards of 5,000 volumes which an ancestor of his had received as a present from a former Emperor. On the 8th of last July he missed this book; and five days later he gave information to the police, with the result that it was discovered that the volumes had been packed up in ten-chests and shipped to Shanghai as tea. Arrived here, it appears that the work was sold through a Chinese broker, to Major Bros. who intended to bring out a reproduction of i at their lithographic works. The man who was supposed to be the principal in the theft has dis appeared; but, carrying out Chinese principles of justice, the City authorities here arrested his brother, and this unfortunate man was recently examined under torture in the City Magistrate's ant, and put it on the window slll, alongside a yamen here, when he confessed that he and his prother and a native broker here and an employé When he had finished his bath defendant went, of Major Bros. had conspired together to steel for the soap and took it away with the ring. the book.
